4. [redacted] [redacted] called to say that Mr. Mead Keller, GSA, informed him that he had received through GAO a complaint from the Master Builders Association regarding the [redacted] project. The Association complained because the project had not been let out for bids. [redacted] has assisted Mr. Keller in preparing a classified response to GAO on this. [redacted] also advised that Mr. Keller has received another complaint which was forwarded by Senator Paul Douglas from a subcontractor. It was agreed that Keller would prepare an unclassified response which would be appropriate. In the event Senator Douglas should come back to GSA on this, we will be pleased to brief the Senator on our interest.

6. [redacted] Met briefly with Fred Hewitt, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, to determine whether the Senate Committee had received a copy of Representative Clarence Cannon's letter to the Agency concerning the CIA budget. Hewitt said he had been shown a copy of the letter by Chuck Mason, but had not officially received the letter and, to his knowledge, no one else in the Committee was aware of its existence. I advised Hewitt that we had been informed that Mr. Cannon had recanted from the position stated in the letter. Mr. Hewitt said that the House Committee usually sends them a letter concerning our budget but had not done so this year.
